Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

This series follows the adventures of Oswald, an animated octopus, who experiences the world as would a preschool child. Living in the metropolis of Big City, Oswald, curious and intensely interested in how the world works, picks his way through the problems and predicaments he faces by sorting through the varying responses of his friends and coming to his own answer. The objectives of this series are to assist preschool children in adapting to the early developmental challenges of building friendships, learning new physical skills, and beginning to understand their own perspectives, as well as those of others. The program also focuses on teaching life-lessons relating to tolerance, civility, problem-solving and cooperation. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Neighborhood Weather Network: Many schools throughout the Kansas City metropolitan area are equipped with Automated Weather Source systems and make up KCTV5's Neighborhood Weather Network. The systems are designed so students and teachers can access their own local weather stations or any other remote station on the network and view the data collected in a number of different formats. This data can be integrated into a hands-on classroom curriculum, including lesson packs for all grade levels. The different weather networks are also used during newscasts to show current weather conditions at different locations throughout the community.

For the weekend of May 4-5, 2002, the CBS Television Network preempted BOB THE BUILDER and DORA THE EXPLORER in order to schedule two additional episodes of BLUES CLUES, in order to increase children's awareness of this acclaimed educational and informational children's program. Consequently, on May 4, 2002, KCTV preempted BOB THE BUILDER and DORA THE EXPLORER, regularly scheduled at 9:00am and 9:30am, and broadcast two additional episodes of BLUES CLUES in their time periods. In February 2002, CBS received an informal opinion from FCC staff that the preemption of these regularly-scheduled E/I programs would not present a problem both because the rules anticipate some preemptions and because the preemptions were for other E/I programming.

WILLFUL FALSE STATEMENTS MADE ON THIS FORM ARE PUNISHABLE BY FINE AND/OR IMPRISONMENT (U.S. CODE, TITLE 18, SECTION 1001), AND/OR REVOCATION OF ANY STATION LICENSE OR CONSTRUCTION PERMIT (U.S. CODE, TITLE 47, SECTION 312(a)(1)), AND/OR FORFEITURE (U.S. CODE, TITLE 47, SECTION 503).

I certify that the statements in this application are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief, and are made in good faith.
